

CHEM ENG NEWS

Department of Chemical Engineering and Applied Chemistry
University of Toronto

Vol. 26, No. 3, January 23, 2009

SEMINARS:

- Pulp & Paper Graduate Student Seminars – CHE1211H
Michael Massad, Heat Transfer in Lime Kilns
Monday, January 26, 2009, 1:10-2:00 p.m., Pulp & Paper Conference Room, Room 420, Wallberg Building, 200 College Street
- Lectures at the Leading Edge, Department of Chemical Engineering and Applied Chemistry, University of Toronto
Donald R. Sadoway, Department of Materials Science and Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Electrochemical Pathways Towards Sustainability
Wednesday, January 28, 2009, 12:30-2:00 p.m., Room 116, Wallberg Building, 200 College Street
- Environment Seminar Series, Centre for Environment, University of Toronto
Lilian Pintea, Ph.D., Director of Conservation Science Africa Programs, Jane Goodall Institute
New Remote Sensing Tools for Great Ape Conservation: The Case of Chimpanzees in Africa
Wednesday, January 28, 2009, 4:10 p.m., East Common Room, Hart House, 7 Hart House Circle
- Environment & Health Seminar Series, Centre for Environment, University of Toronto
Warren Foster, Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Director, Centre for Reproductive Care, McMaster University Health Sciences Centre
Breast Cancer and Environmental Toxicants: New Approaches to Animal Studies in Research
Thursday, January 29, 2009, 4:10 p.m., Health Sciences Building, Room 108, 155 College Street

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Conferences/Workshops/Special Events:

39th Annual Loss Control Seminar, hosted by ENCON Group Inc., March 11, 2009, Mississauga, March 26, 2009, Toronto. Must RSVP with Kathy Olson seven days prior to each seminar (Kathy.r.olson@encon.ca).

Energy and Sustainability 2009, Second International Conference on Energy and Sustainability, June 23-25, 2009, Bologna, Italy. Web-site: <http://www.wessex.ac.uk/energy2009ren4.html>. Abstracts as soon as possible.